

TUESDAY, March 5th, 1833.

The house met. Present the same members as on yesterday. The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill, entitled, an act to alter and change the location of a public road therein mentioned was sent to the senate.

The bill from the senate, entitled, an act to incorporate the Washington Medical College, of Baltimore, passed by this house on yesterday was returned to the senate.

Mr. Jenkins, presented a memorial of the Maryland Academy of science and Literature, recommending that a geological survey of the state, may be made under public authority;

Which was read and referred to the committee already appointed on the subject of a state map.

Mr. Turner, presented a petition of Peter Kamp, praying to be divorced from his wife Amelia Kamp;

Which was read and referred to the committee on divorces.

Mr. Mann, presented a petition of George Brent, of Washington county, praying for a special act authorising him to bring into this state a negro slave therein mentioned;

Which was read and referred to the committee on the coloured population.

Mr. Schley, presented a petition of Peter Schlosser and others, of Frederick county; counter to the petition of Daniel Rodrick, and others, praying the passage of a law for the erection of a bridge, as therein expressed;

Which was read and referred to the committee already appointed on that subject.

Mr. Unkafer, presented a petition of William, Hasson, David Yingling, and others, praying for a convention of the state to reform the constitution;

Which was read and referred to the committee on the constitution.

Mr. Duvall, of Prince George's, presented a petition of sundry citizens of Prince George's county, praying that Sarah Flarherty, and her two grandchildren, William and Margaret King, may be placed on the pension list of said county. And,

Mr. Gittings, presented the petition of Elizabeth Redden of Montgomery county, praying pecuniary relief by county assessment.

Which were severally read and referred to the committee on pensions to indigent persons by county assessments.